

BizFed's Mission is to Strengthen the Voice of Business in the Central Valley

Together, BizFed Central Valley members – large and small – from all sectors of our 37 cities and five counties will use our collective voices to amplify our political influence.

BizFed Central Valley is growing steadily!

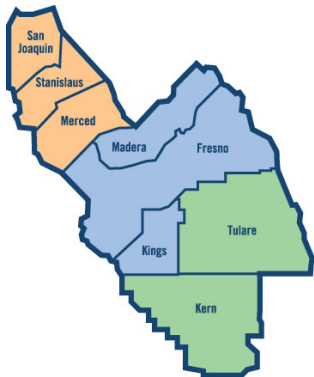

We have 42 paid and/or committed members. Our membership is diverse and represents business and associations from energy, farming, manufacturing, construction, civic organizations, transportation, business services and more! Our board is up and running with officers from nearly all our represented counties. The board has taken positions on several key issues:

- Support a finding a solution to the San Joaquin Valley's stubborn drinking water problems.
- Oppose state mandates on the electrification of all new commercial construction.
- Oppose the upcoming rent control initiative.
- Form coalition to engage the implantation of new community air monitoring statute.
- Oppose mandatory project labor agreements for state prison construction.
- And many more...

BizFed CV members have also been engaging directly with key policy makers including Assembly Member Vince Fong, Kern County Planning Director Lorelei Oviatt, San Joaquin Valley Air Pollution Control District outgoing and incoming directors, Sayed Sadredin and Samir Sheikh.

The Valley's voice is growing!

CENTRAL VALLEY BY THE NUMBERS

- The region's population is projected to nearly double from 6.8 million in 2010 to 12.8 million in 2060.
- The top four counties in agriculture sales in the United States are in the Central Valley.
- Education and health services provide the largest number of jobs in the region, followed by trade, transportation, and utilities.
- The Central Valley is home to 21 giant oil fields that have produced over one billion barrels of oil each, making it California's most productive region.
